

Drama Club

1st-7th Grade

About the Instructor: Nicole Hebert Barwick is a Mandeville native. After graduating from Loyola University in the 90's, she acted, danced and taught English and theatre in Japan, New York, and Atlanta for over 20 years. In New York, she originated the roles of "Laurie June" and "Audrey" in the play Recollection at Manhattan Theater Club. Some of her more favorite roles include "Jolene" in Dirty Rotten Scoundrels at 30 by Ninety theater, and as Rosalind (a spunky 98 -year old) in Practice at Playmakers this past May. Currently, she teaches Talented Theatre with St. Tammany Parish Public Schools and looks forward to every summer where she leads the drama classes at MADD Camp at The Cedarwood School. She lives in Covington with her husband Luke, and two cats Arnie and Rosey.

Formed in 1988, Cedarwood Drama Club has been one of the most popular after-school programs. The Drama Club productions will consist of students from 1st through 7th grades. Students will be cast into parts appropriate for their age and skill level. Older students with more drama experience will model for the younger students. While the production is the end result of our efforts in class, our focus is on the process. Our hope is to foster the development of imagination, cooperation, speech, self-expression and self-confidence in an atmosphere of trust, acceptance, and FUN!"
